ABOUT $4,000,000 PAID TO BUY
OUT THE COMPANY.

New Boats and New Terminals Premised for Some Time in the Future—Meantime Friction Between Railroad and Ferry Company is Permanently Stopped

President Truesdale of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company announced yesterday that his company had bought the New York and Hoboken Ferry Company. The sale embraces the entire outstanding stock of the ferry company—$3,000,000 shares of a par value of $3,000,000.

The stock was bought from a syndicate which was formed last year by Gustav E. Kiesel. The Standard Trust Company was used by this syndicate as a collecting agency for the stock. It was understood in Wall Street yesterday that J. P. Morgan & Co. had acted as managers of the syndicate and had this week closed the sale of the stock to the railroad company. Although the amount paid for the ferry company shares could not be learned from official quarters, it is believed to have aggregated in the neighborhood of $4,000,000.

The properties of the company include the Barclay street, Christopher street and Fourteenth street ferries. Regarding plans for the future, President Truesdale said yesterday:

"We are going to put on new boats and build new terminals when we get around to it."

There has been a lot of friction between the railroad company and the ferry company. The railroad for a long time had a contract with the ferry company for the transportation of its passengers between this city and Hoboken; but this agreement

St. Lawrence Boats

Under-Price

THESE are the best boats made, as every sportsman knows, but in carrying such a large stock as we do, naturally, some of the boats have been scratched in handling, and we wish to dispose of them quickly. All are in perfect condition otherwise, and there is not a real hurt on any of them.
The following list shows quite a saving from the regular prices, which are the least for which these boats can be bought originally:

One No. 1 grade 16-foot St. Lawrence

Skiff, with two pairs of oars and rudder; list price $137.50, at $100.

One No. 2 grade 16-foot St. Lawrence

Skiff, with two pairs of oars and rudder; list price

$75, at $60.

One No. 3 grade 16-foot St. Lawrence

Skiff, with one pair of oars; list price

$50, at $40.

Four 13-foot white mahogany trimmed

Paddling Canoes, extra light; $40, from $30.

One special cedar and mahogany Paddling Canoe, 17 ft. long; $50, from $60.

One 13-foot special white cedar Row-boat, with one pair of oars, two set rowlocks; $35, from $45.

JOHN WANAMAKER

Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co., Broadway, 4th ave., 9th and 10th sts.

was abrogated after, it was reported, unavailing attempts by the railroad to secure better terms. Since December last, the railroad passengers carried by the ferry have been paid for at the regular ferry rates. The railroad company went so far as to threaten to build ferries of its own, and it was suggested, when the franchise of the New York and New Jersey tunnel was asked for, that the Lackawanna might be behind the enterprise.
Wall Street's first intimation of a change in the situation came in December last, when there was a sudden advance in the price of Hoboken Ferry securities in the curb market. The stock rose on small sales from 75, which had been the prevailing price, to 85 bid. It has since developed that a private offer was made to every stockholder of the ferry company for the purchase of every share of his stock at par. The stock was delivered to the trust company representing the purchasing syndicate. The big block of stock which had been owned by the Stevens family of Hoboken had been disposed of by that family and it was also acquired by the syndicate from the interests which had purchased it.
It was reported that the profit of the syndicate, as a result of the sale, will figure out between 10 and 12 per cent.

JERSEY JURIES AWARD DAMAGES.

For an Arm, $12,000; for 3 Fingers, $3,000; for an Injured Head, $1,500.

Martin Gill of 578 Grand street, Jersey City, obtained a judgment of $12,000 against the National Storage Company in the Supreme Court, that city, yesterday, as com-penation for the loss of his right arm, which was cut off last year by the bumpers of two freight cars on the company's tracks at Black Tom. He attempted to cross the tracks between the sections of a train when the cars suddenly came together.

Another jury in the Supreme Court awarded to Leo S. Diehl of Bayonne a verdict of $3,000 for the loss of three fingers in his suit against the Standard Oil Company. He caught his hand in a barrel drying machine while in the employ of the company two years ago. Diehl is 31 years old.

Edward McGowan, a laborer, who sued the National Storage Company for heavy damages in the Circuit Court, Jersey City, for injuries inflicted by a heavy sliding door, which fell on his head, recovered a verdict of $1,500 yesterday. It was alleged that the injuries affected his brain.

A Saving of $13.00 to $16.00 on Men's Custom Suits--$22.00

THAT'S the proposition—and there is a splendid lot of imported woollens for selection, too. They were brought over for this Spring—the same designs are being shown by the most exclusive and high priced tailors. With these fine Cheviots we have put some of the best American unfinished worsteds and some excellent American serges.

Suits from these fabrics would ordinarily cost $35.00 and $38.00 here—which is a fourth at least under the average good tailor's prices. To-day's price for them will be $22.00.

We will make sack or English walking coat suits as you prefer. It is a chance not to be missed.
